BLUE AND GRAY

The annals of Washington-Lee have been preserved through past Blue and Grays. As has been done in years before, we present to you the history of our school year—1953.

This is 1953! It is the day of the catty look with its turned up collar, pony tail, fruit boots, and flat tops. Drip, stupid, and natch are passé, now it's slob, prune, or shrewd.

This is our year of Eastward Expansion. Have you ever seen such a long hallway? Classrooms seem miles apart, but the space is badly needed. 2600 is no small number!

What made this year for us? Was it the many friends we made, the classes we enjoyed, or the sporting season? Perhaps it was the clubs and activities, plays, dances and proms, or the new Senior Court. Or was it the controversies? Senior Personals? Privileges? Traditions?

This is 1953!

SCHOOL BOARD
Left to right: Mr. Warren Cox, Mrs. Elizabeth D. Campbell, Dr. Bernard Joy, Dr. Irwin R. Draheim, Dr. Curtis E. Tuthill.

MR. T. EDWARD RUTTER
Superintendent of Schools

As a result of consistent growth of the student population during recent years, and because of inadequate facilities in the old portion of the building, a large addition to Washington-Lee High School has just been completed. We are fortunate in now possessing a building that is well equipped to meel the needs of all the young men and women who are attending this school. We shall continue to strive to make this one of the outstanding high schools in America.

ADMINIS

MR. C. GLEN HASS
Associate Superintendent of Schools

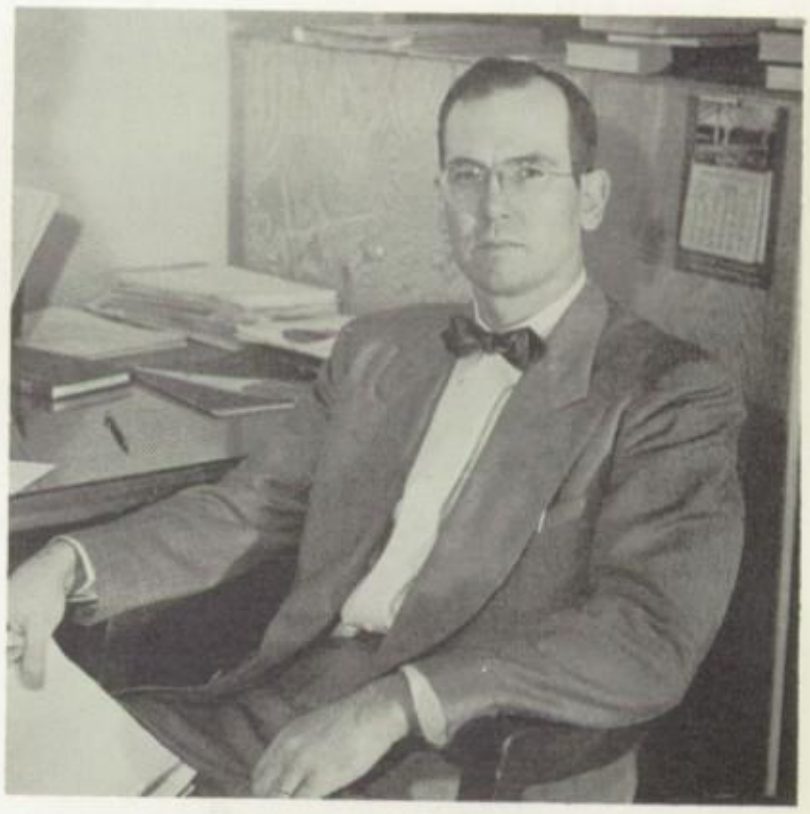
MR. JERRY GERICH
Principal

I shall make every effort possible to organize and administer this school so young people can be helped to set and attain higher goals for their own development. They must be prepared for their increasingly larger part in the responsibilities of American citizenship. Our country is faced with many perplexing problems—social, political, economic, state, national and international. Their ramifications will be awaiting solution by the best prepared minds and the most courageous hearts of our generation. These tasks call for informed and enlightened citizens.

TRATION

MR. CHARLES J. WALSH
Assistant Superintendent of Schools

DR. EDWARD J. BRAUN
Assistant Superintendent of Schools



DR. HAROLD WILSON
Associate Principal

To the Class of '52

During your days at W-L, the school staff and your student leaders have worked together to make of the school a laboratory for living. It is hoped that you have had a great many vital experiences which have helped you select your life's work and prepare for it; have helped you to function more effectively as a member of a family group; have helped you to participate actively and intelligently in communication, computation and human relationships; have provided you with leisure time interests and an enjoyment of the finer things in our culture; and have alerted you to the moral and spiritual values as a guide to everyday conduct. For three years I have watched you grow toward the maturity your graduation signifies. I have confidence in your ability to assume the responsibility for your continued development. My very best wishes to each of you.

MR. BEN NORRIS
Dean of Boys

As each small part goes to make up a whole, so the personality of each student and teacher tends to make up a great school. My purpose as a staff member has been to guide the boys of Washington-Lee over the obstacle course of youth toward the establishment of an acceptable behavior pattern—Good Citizenship.

OFFICE STAFF

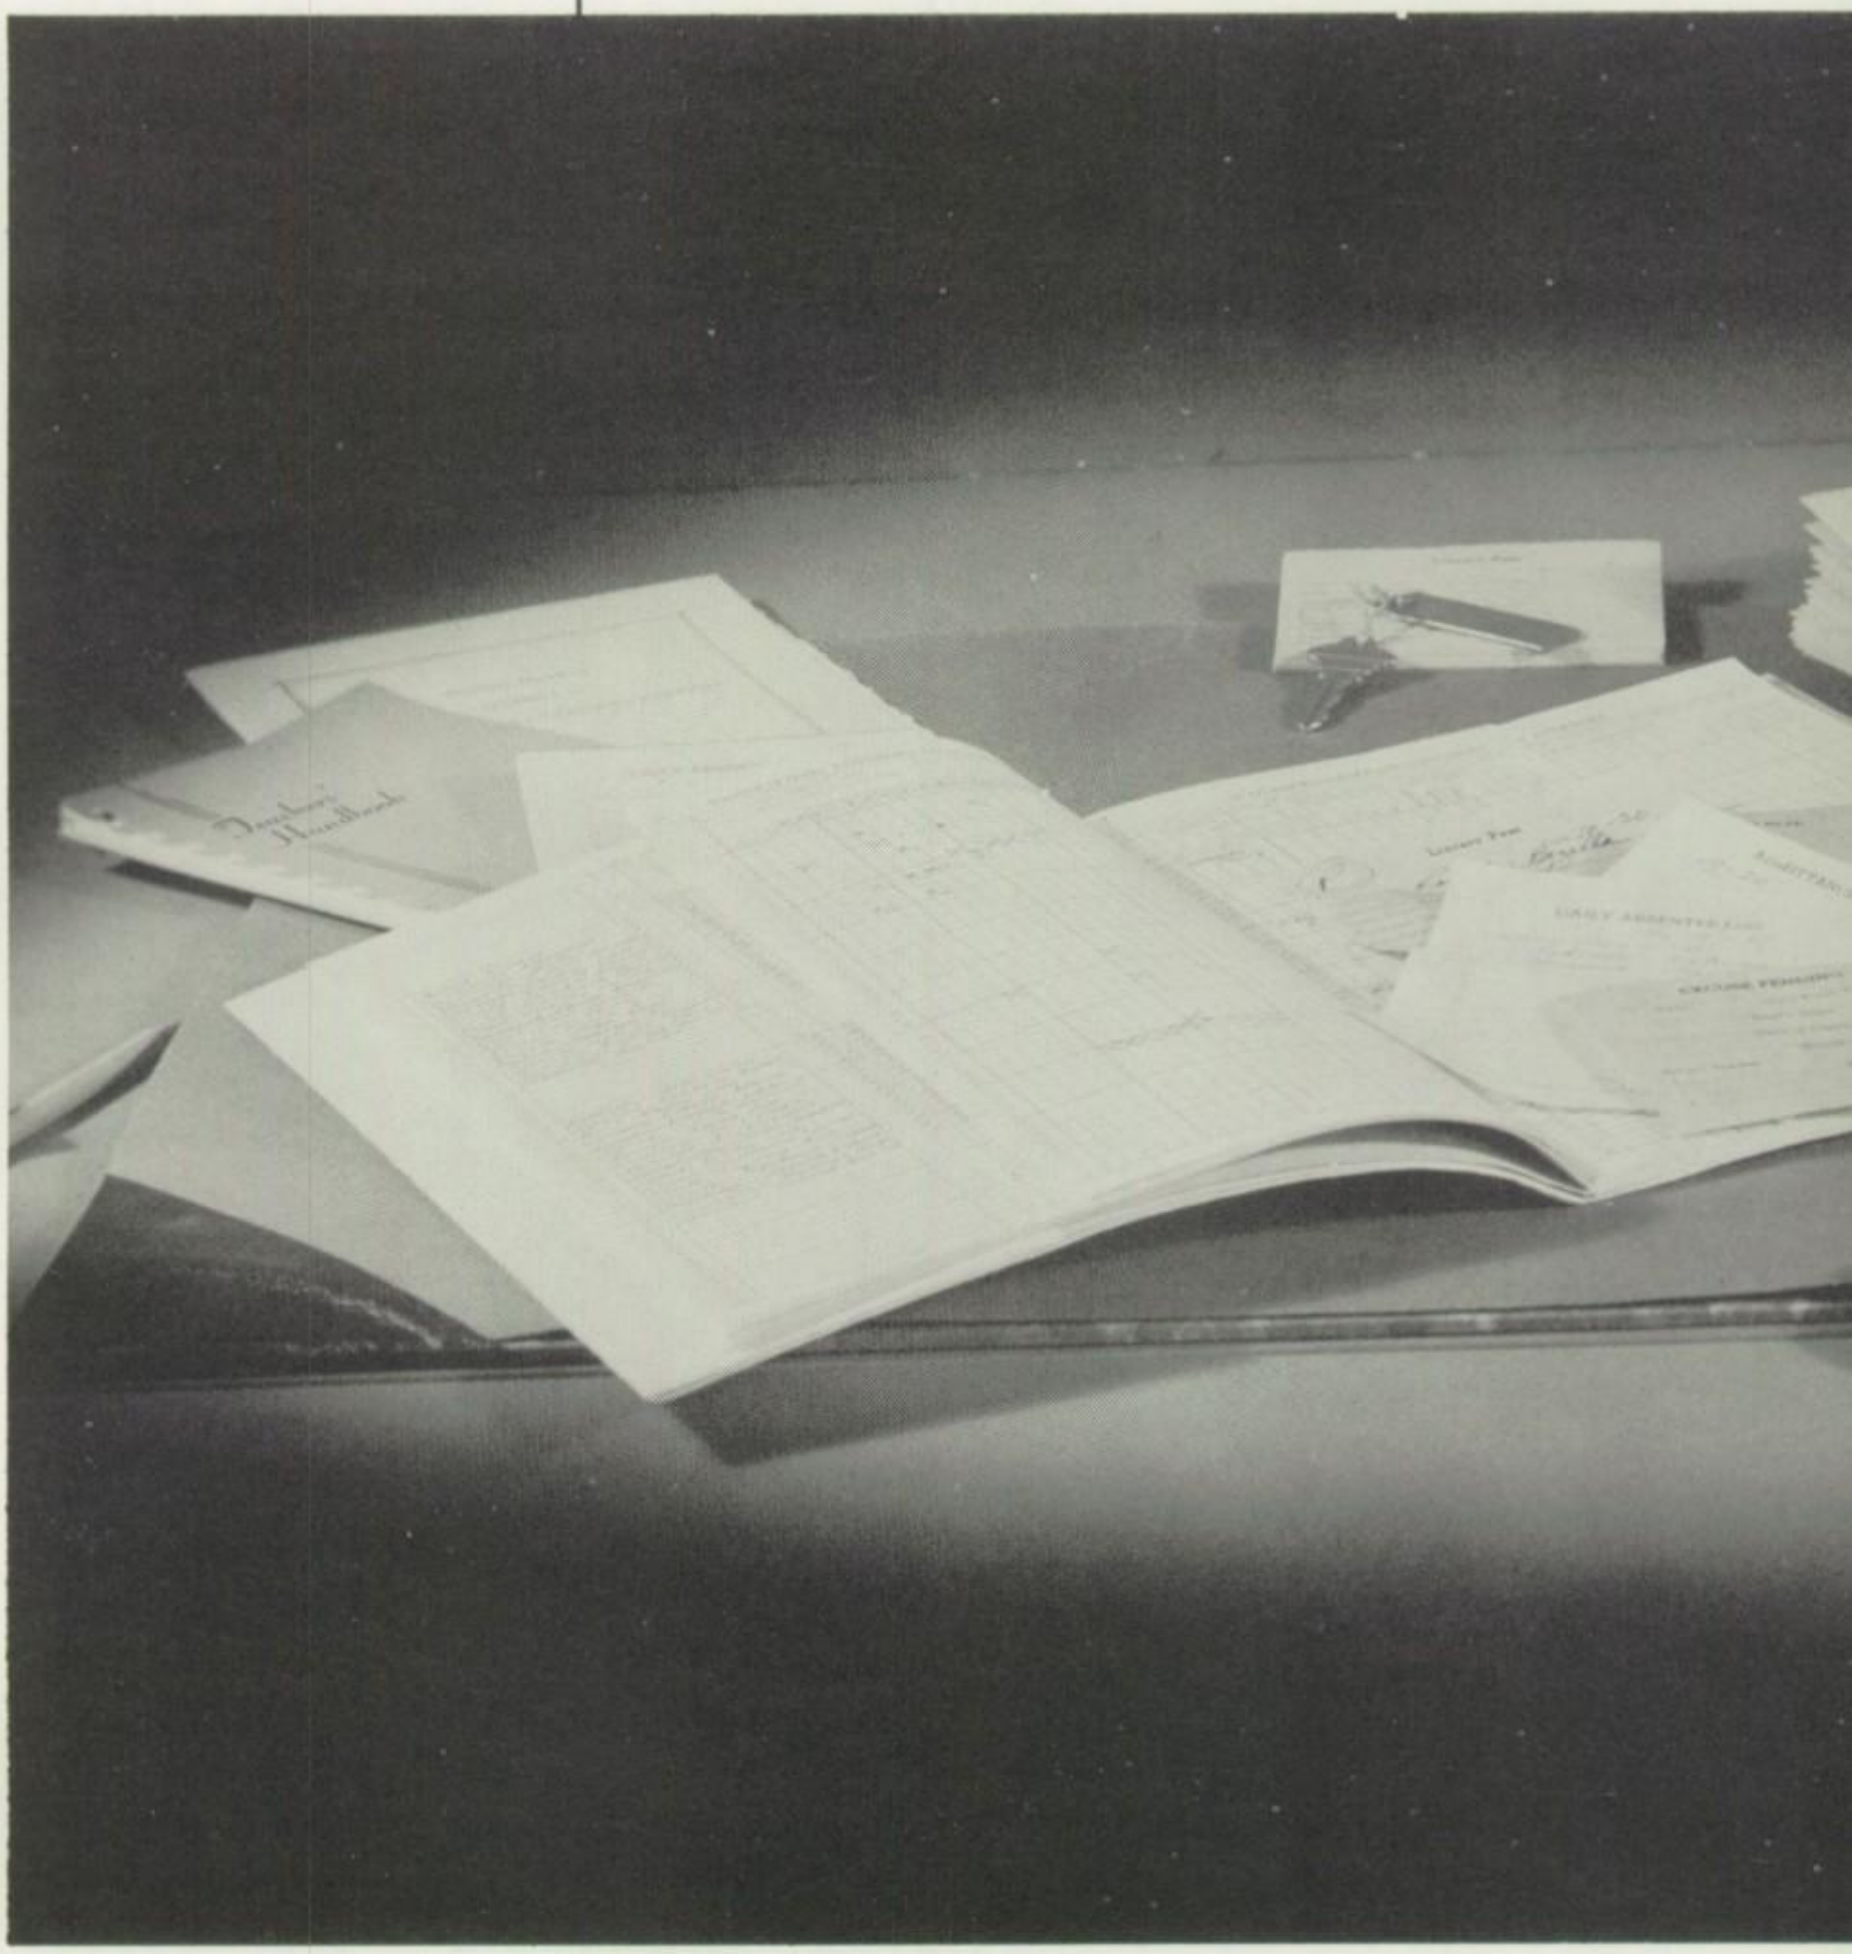
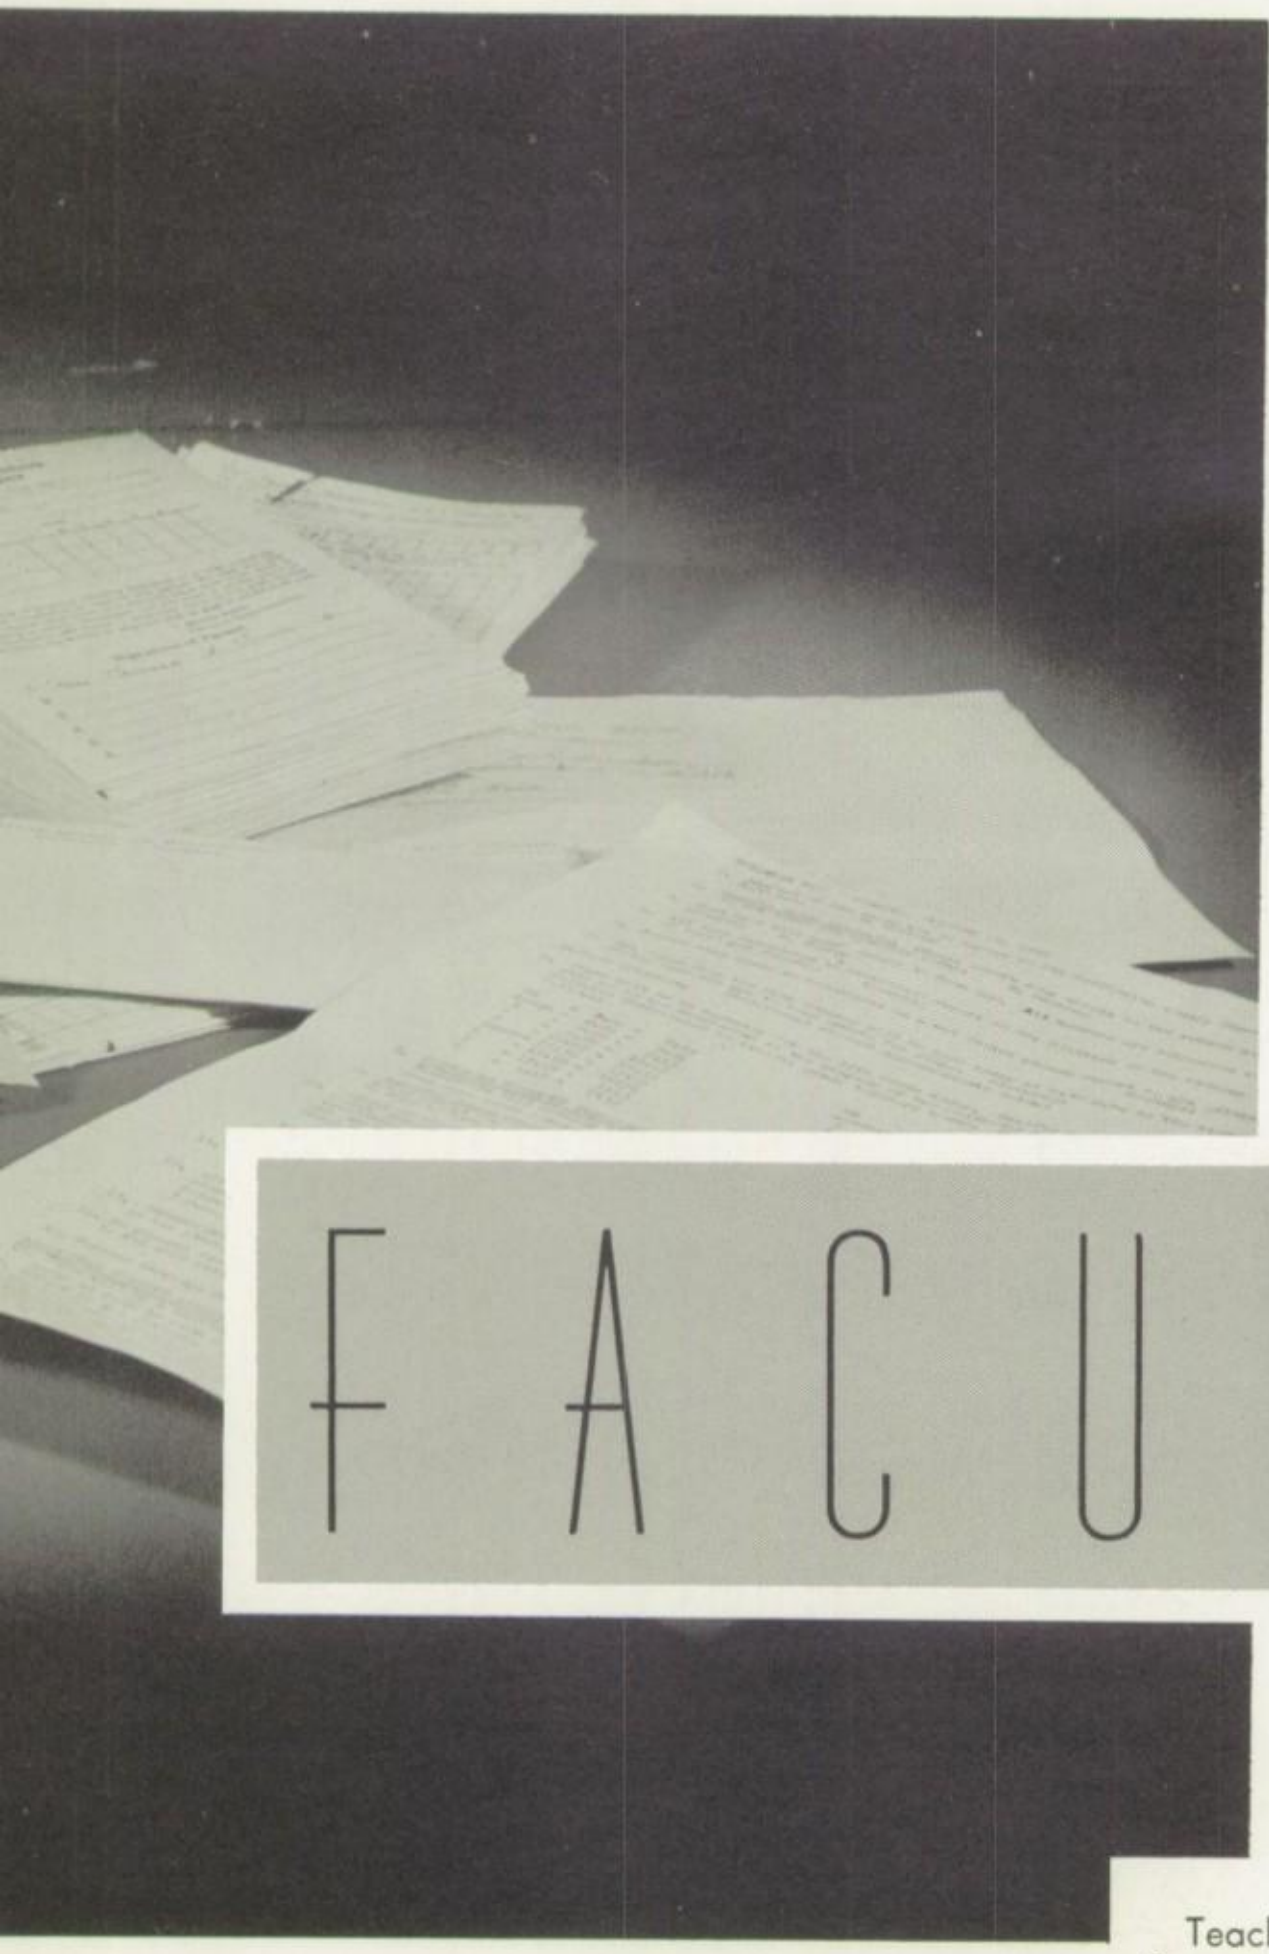
Night Crew: Samuel Harrington—shop, Arthur McLaurin, James Jones, William Peterson, Robert Murchison, William Patton, John J. McConlouge.

MRS. HELEN K. FINLAY
Dean of Girls

A school becomes great through the accomplishments of its students. In working with each girl, I attempt to draw upon all of the school's services and facilities to make possible personal fulfillment and maximum development of individual talent.





FACULTY

Teaching, stripped of its glamour. Seventh period, and its mountains of red tape and paperwork. Behind the poetry, music, and science there is the drudgery that is essential. Teaching is a combination of this unseen work and the personal contact which makes it both an enjoyable and demanding profession.

ACTIVITIES

Just as studies are a purpose of school, so our activities have become an integral part of the cirriculum. As is fitting to a large school, Washington-Lee offers a wide variety.

Long before classes started in September, the Student Government was at work. In July Tom Thayer and Shirley Stump attended a nationwide conference of high school student government representatives at Evanston, Illinois. Here ideas were exchanged and problems thrashed around. In August the officers drew up the new edition of the Student Handbook that has been found indispensible by so many of us.

When classes began, the cafeteria clean-up program was inaugurated. Posters and announcements urged everyone to take pride in W-L and keep it clean.

Betty Jo Whitten put in long hours getting the football programs. In the Spring she headed a committee that did an excellent job on the basketball programs for the varsity games.

The Campbell Plaque commemorating one of the school's best beloved teachers was purchased and presented to the school. You'll find it over the R. C. Campbell Gym door.

In order to keep everyone posted on the school activities a schedule case was erected in the main hall.

Two of the school's favorite dances were sponsored by the Student Government. The Alumni Dance in the Ballroom of the Shoreham Hotel topped what amounted to "old folks at home week." In February the Spinsters' Ball gave the girls an opportunity to ask the boys out.

KALAGETHOS

Preparation for College Night.

Leadership . . . Scholarship . . . Citizenship . . . Service.

Putting this motto into practice is the goal of Kalagetho Chapter of the National Honor Society.

During the year we have undertaken several major projects. The first was College Night which was put on in coordination with the Guidance Department. Later we assisted with Career Day by playing host to the speakers.

Various members of the Society formed panels to discuss the problem of dishonesty in the school.

Troupe 1251 of the National Thespian Society, one of Washington-Lee's newest activities, has had a busy year. With four plays on the agenda, the Thespians have organized, elected officers, and inducted fifteen new members, all since September.

Thespian membership is gained after participation in any phase of two major productions, and evidence of a real interest in the theatre.

BETA CLUB

Lost and Found.

Beta is one of the largest clubs in Washington-Lee, and was started only last year. We helped other schools start chapters. Our biggest project was to run a Lost and Found service for the school. For the big game we sponsored the bonfire and the cheerleaders float.

Row 1: C. Christopherson, J. Higgins, E. Condon, B. Morrison, J. Vernelson, J. Smith, C. Nostrom, J. Pflugshaupt, M. Rixey, J. Jarvis, J. Wood, E. Birch, N. Blakeney. Row 2: J. Gibson, B. Row 3: L. Inman, H. Hansen, M. Gidens, C. McCormick. Row 4: M. Funk, B. Henshaw, N. Woods, H. Moore, Secretary.

The Inter-Club Council is composed of representatives from the clubs. We were responsible for judging the cleverly decorated cars and floats in the successful Thanksgiving "Beat G.W." parade. We did what we could to help the Student Council with their "clean-up-the-cafeteria" campaign, and we were successful in getting clothing for people in flooded European countries. By the end of this year we will have completed a book on the activities, history, and purpose of all the school clubs. This will be for the information of all Washington-Lee students.

TRI-Y ALPHA

Cancer Dressings.

The year began successfully for Alpha Tri-Y when Mr. Johnson conducted a very informal session on the basic dance steps of the tango and fox trot. We found that it really takes "Two to Tango."

Alpha had a series of interesting and educational programs which aided us in our making friends with other students and faculty. We especially enjoyed Barbara Hensley's colorful slides on London, France and Germany.

We sent our traditional Christmas basket and also sold T. B. seals.

Our Tri-Y has developed many close friendships with its social activities, such as our "Old Oaken Bucket" Thanksgiving float, our slumber parties, and the decorating of the Christmas tree in the cafeteria.

BETA TRI-Y

We began each semester by our traditional fun night and initiation of new members. At Thanksgiving we gave a food basket to the needy. December brought the selling of T.B. seals.

During the first of each month the girls placed Red Feather bulletins around the community on bulletin boards.

Swansen.

Lots of fun was had at the Tri-Y, Hi-Y Dance. Our year ended with many happy memories of good times together.

GAMMA TRI-Y

Gamma Tri-Y stayed busy this year. We made Christmas card Scrapbooks for hospitals, sold T.B. seals, collected money for the cancer fund, worked for the Washington Home for Foundlings, and prepared Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter baskets for the needy. We have also had lots of fun on "fun night" and at our slumber parties.

Connell, B Brumbach, M. Dickman, B. Cunningham.

Our foremost project for the year was "adopting" orphans in order to add a little fun to their lives. In the Fall we took a large group of them to the zoo. On Christmas Day we assisted Santa Claus by sending them gifts by the dozens. Easter brought them an unlimited supply of colored eggs and baskets heaped with candy.

Among our other activities are: assisting with a G. W. float, selling T.B. Seals, knitting an afghan for our boys in Korea, sending them letters and packages, and doing the publicity for our big Tri-Y, Hi-Y Dance that climaxed a year of success and enjoyment.

Polishing Trophies.

By the sign of the red bow tie Alpha began its year by taking in pledges. The pledges had the duty of keeping tables in the cafeteria clean. During the Fall we sold tickets to all the football games. For the G. W. game we had a float with Delta Tri-Y.

May you have the best of luck & happiness through the coming years.

Initiation.

Blue and White ribbons "marked" Beta's pledges. The triumph of the year was our defeat of Alpha Hi-Y in the traditional football game 6-0. We helped boost school spirit for the Big Game by selling "Beat G.W." signs. Outside school we have had several charitable projects.

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION

The Distributors Club is affiliated both nationally and in the state. Here at Washington-Lee it is divided into a Junior and Senior sections. The club under-took this year to operate the school store. The store carries school supplies and novelties. In January we sponsored the Valentine Dance, which was climaxed with the crowning of the King and Queen of Hearts. During the year we attended the Area and State conventions of Distributors Clubs. At the end of the year everyone enjoyed the Employer Employee Banquet.

The Key Club — one of the most active service clubs at W-L. We started our year with our successful Hawaiian dance for the Cerebral Palsy fund, and "Dottie" was crowned our sweetheart in true Hawaiian fashion. We passed out Easter seals to promote to T.B. campaign. The Key Club was also responsible for a Beat G.W. float and sponsored an assembly.

We have had several guest speakers this year including a cosmetician, a model, and a hair stylist. We modeled clothes for Simplicity patterns and put on two fashion shows for department stores. We learn how to dress, the principles of good grooming and posture, and other things interesting to us gals.

FLYING GENERALS

Have you ever watched a model airplane enthusiast fly his plane? It may look easy but it really requires much practice and skill. In our club we learn this skill of building and flying gas power, model airplanes. Every Thursday we meet out on the athletic field, fly our planes and have fun!

"Wondering eyes."

Here is the best place to learn the two most helpful card games. As we advanced we ventured out to have a few tournaments among ourselves and with other clubs.

Y-TEENS

One of the most active clubs in Washington-Lee. We started the year out with a Get-Acquainted Tea. One of the most exciting projects was a trip to New York City to see the U. N. at work.

At Christmas we went caroling, made scrapbooks for hospitalized children, collected toys for needy children, and collected "Chocolates for Christmas."

Later we played hostess for the Saturday Night Club dances at Saint John's Parish Hall. We participated in the World Fellowship Service at Washington Cathedral.

Thru our activities we had the opportunity for friendship not only with the girls in our chapter but with the District Y-Teens.

TELL-A-TALE THEATRE

Being the only high school touring company in the United States that brings a full season of theatre (3 plays) to the young people of the community, proved to have many growing pains. Our student run project overcame many of the difficulties during its fourteen performances of each play. Ten thousand children saw each of our stage presentations but a larger audience saw "The Tinker Shop," our T.V. series. Each alternate Saturday on WMAL we gave such classics as Pinocchio, Pandora, and Tom Sawyer. It has been a busy and eventful year. We are extremely grateful to all the teachers, supervisors and parents who helped make this unique project possible.

BOYS TUMBLING

The Tumbling Club was formed for boys interested in the development of their skill on tumbling apparatus. They put on exhibitions of work on the tramboline, rings, side horse, ropes and mats.

ART

We spend our club period sketching and painting, using still life models. We have also seen movies on famous painters and on how to make pottery.

The Drama Appreciation Club prepared a radio script on polio and presented it over WEAM. We have also performed for Tri-Y, entered the drama contest, and had programs on make-up and other aspects of the stage.

Here we let our imaginations run loose and come up with some surprising stories. We have a publication of our stories that is just for the club. Also we submit manuscripts to the Penman.

BLUE AND GRAY

After many conferences, the staff for the 1953 Blue and Gray was chosen last Spring. This was going to be a new set-up. Instead of an editor-in-chief we had a Board of Editors. It was found that co-ordinators would be needed: Nancy Shekelton, Al Koster, and Rod Wolfe took over.

September: The staff was running on all eight cylinders. Theme chosen—dummy back from printer—we did'nt like it and from then on layout produced terrific pages. Orderly chaos reigned sixth period . . . "Tell those Seniors to come down for their portraits"—controversy raged over personals . . . "Call Stuckey's" . . . "Copy!"

October: We were up to here in paper work and pictures. "Get a picture of a classroom" . . . "We need 5 more faculty informals" . . . "Tell that Copy Editor we need a divider—quick" . . . "Get the Juniors down for their pictures."

December: If this wasn't the busiest month! Everyone worked long hours as the Senior class deadline approached. "Informals" . . . personals posed a problem . . . "What can I say nice about him?" . . . Christmas vacation and we still labored on . . . "Tell Stuckey we want those glossies" . . . "Is your annual coming out in May?" "No, July!!" . . . the advertising staff did a good job . . . more ads sold than ever before . . . Al Koster left for Japan . . . now we ran on seven cylinders.

BLUE AND GRAY

January and February: Proofs began coming in . . . "Requisition, one pair glasses for Copy Editor" . . . it was just a routine month of layout . . . club pictures . . . informals . . . deadline for payment of annuals . . . and our assembly.

March: The final deadline met . . . "That book better come out on time" . . . page proofs checked and returned . . . what a relief . . . now to sit back and wait.

The 1953 Blue and Gray's finally arrived. Do you like it? We hope you do.

Fall-Winter-Spring, the Penman staff is continually working on their literary magazine. The Penman comes out three times a year, with the seasons, and the last issue is dedicated to our senior class. The Penman puts our stories into print so that our student body may read them. Poems and stories of all types are printed and enjoyed.

SYMPHONIC MOVEMENTS

Largo: It was a slow process organizing and electing officers, but soon we really sounded like an orchestra.

Allegro: Our first performance at the District-H Festival proved that our year would be a successful one.

Adagio: Presenting a well-balanced program of music for all the junior highs was one of our enjoyable tasks. We also accompanied group singing for W-L assemblies and then gave two assemblies of our own.

Menuetto: A highlight of the year was being compared with other orchestras of the State at the District Music Festival in Fredericksburg.

Finale: In our Spring Concert, the height of our musical achievements was realized. The final chords of our beautiful symphony are faded and gone, but there is the remembrance of a successful year.

WASHINGTON-LEE CHOIR

Miss Bee

This fall knees were knocking in Miss "Bee's" room. It was tryout time for the nationally famous Washington-Lee Choir. Soon after familiar cries of "Whoop-hee—I made it" rang through the halls.

Work began immediately in our larger, improved music quarters. We kept busy singing at school assemblies.

Christmas arrived too soon. Four hundred voices from our school and G. W. combined to present the "Messiah." Then came the Christmas candlelight concert with our brand new robes . . . our successful alumni party during the holidays . . . our after concert trips to the Hot Shoppe, driving the waitresses crazy.

The New Year . . . We went to Atlantic City to sing for the A. A. S. C. Convention (What a night!) . . . the trip to Fredricksburg for the District Music Festival.

"Spring can't be here so soon." This brought our annual concert to the National Art Gallery and at last, our long awaited Spring Concert.

Graduation and Baccalaureate . . . the last time we'll ever sing in Miss "Bee's" choir.

It seemed a little strange singing Christmas music in September, but it was all in preparing for the choral festival in December, with Dr. Harry Robert Wilson conducting. We sported our new robes at the Christmas Candlelight Service, where we appeared in the "singing tree." In the spring began the seemingly endless round of performances at junior high schools, the Spring Recital, and the Music Festival.

FOOTBALL

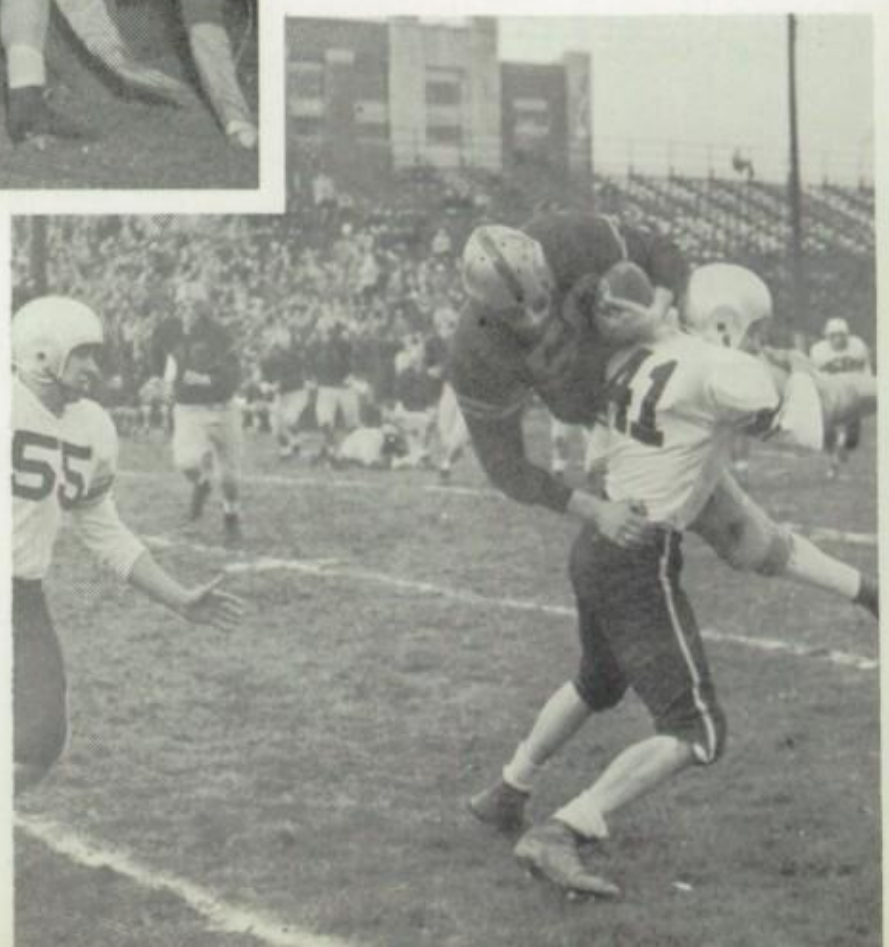
Closing in for the kill.

Presidents without prestige.



W-L 7 — Fairfax 7
Against a supposedly weak "Rebels" team, the Generals could get nowhere as they hobbled constantly. A quick TD was W-L's only claim to looking like a team.

W-L 13 — Northwestern 2
One of supposed upsets of the season. W-L showed strength in two quick tallies. Only safety marred shutout.

W-L 22 — Coolidge 7
Colts picked up only 82 yards in whole game. Generals' 14 first downs too much for the 3 the visitors could muster.

W-L 12 — Wilson 14
Boys found foreign ground hard to adjust to. Rally came too late.

W-L 6 — Jefferson Senior 19
One more defeat. Injuries beginning to hamper play. Huston becomes first man of season to cover over 100 yards rushing in one game.

W-L 7 — St. John's 14
Highly rated Johnnies edge out close decision. First and only time of season, Generals outclassed in first downs. Mabry lost until Mt. Vernon game.

W-L 6 — Thomas Jefferson 21
First half only resemblance to close game. Eberdt's plunge in second quarter averted shutout.

W-L 13 — Covington 25
"Cougars" romped in first half. Comeback in second half too late. Team still not at full strength.

W-L 13 — George Washington 14
Difference determined by extra point. Presidents pulled down second "oaken bucket." Most of tallies came on long runs.

Huston catches a nice block.

"No meat for the Wildcats."

Coaches Lynn Davis, Ken Batson, Mike Millen.

W-L 12 — Mount Vernon 7
Underrated Generals avenged last year's 33-0 drubbing. "Majors" almost nil in power. Two good runs avoided the Mount's complete slaughter.

On honorary teams the Generals were well represented on all state teams. Doug Watson pulled down first string defensive end. Walt Sedgewick, Dick Mabry, Porter Claxton and Tom Huston got honorable mention on the All-Metropolitan Team. All but Mabry repeated.

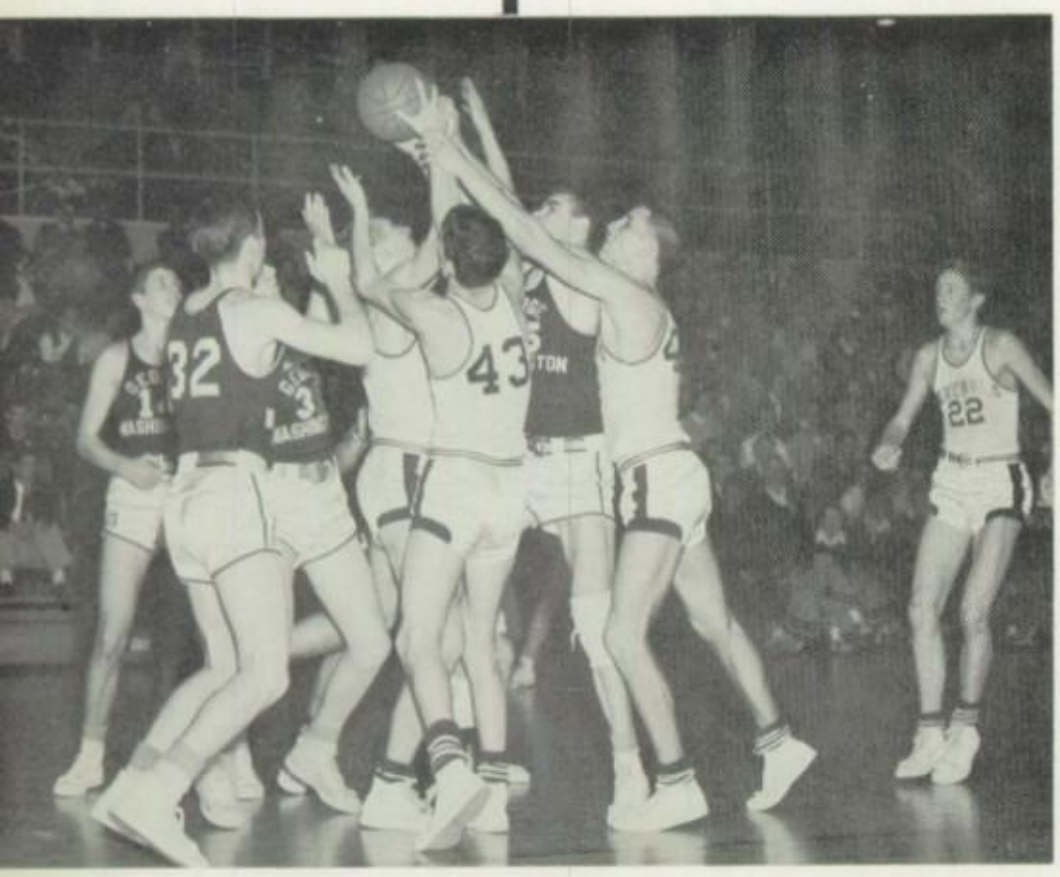
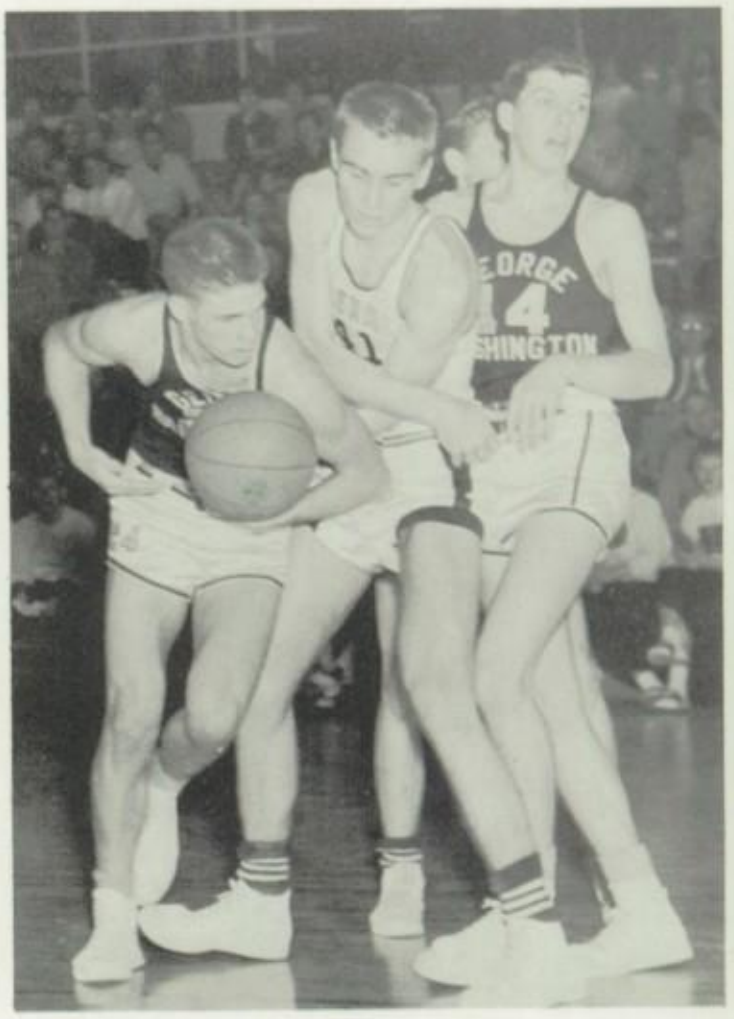
BASKETBALL



Your guess is as good as mine.



Squeeze play.

The Generals wound up their best season in the school's history, setting several team and individual records on the way. Several of the new records were the 1290 points for the season and an average of 56.08 points per game. Jack Schilling left his mark as he dropped in 249 points and averaged 11.9 per game.

The first five games served only to warm up for the real competition as the cagers rolled up an excess of 81 points over the opposition. Jack Schilling and Wally Ryland were pacing the team with 54 and 46 points respectively.

Three of the first losses suffered during the season came in a streak as Roosevelt, George Washington and St. John's all dropped the Generals. Of these only St. John's really had a win when they fought their way to an 80-63 victory. This proved to be the only time an opponent scored more than 60 points.

After recovering from the sudden change of fortune, the hoopsters began a string which contained 12 victories carrying them to the end of the regular season without a further loss.

In tournament play the Generals had a record of one win and two losses. However, both losses were to the eventual winners of the two tournaments.

W-L was probably better known for defense this year than for offense. The trend toward loose defense was not taken up by the Generals as they held their opposition to only 949 points or 41.28 points per game. One factor in the low scoring of the opposition was the size of our players who averaged a height of six feet-one inch. Offense also was strong with two players beside Schilling breaking 200 points. These boys were Wally Ryland and Bernie Dean, each with 220 points. Wally picked up a good share of his from the foul line where he led the team with 90 points. Schilling was leading shooter with 94 goals.

FENCING

En guard. Thurst, parry, lunge, touché! A new sport introduced at W-L for the first time this year, fencing has caught on and is gaining in popularity. The fencing team looks forward to a promising season in inter-high match competition.

"Parry in First."

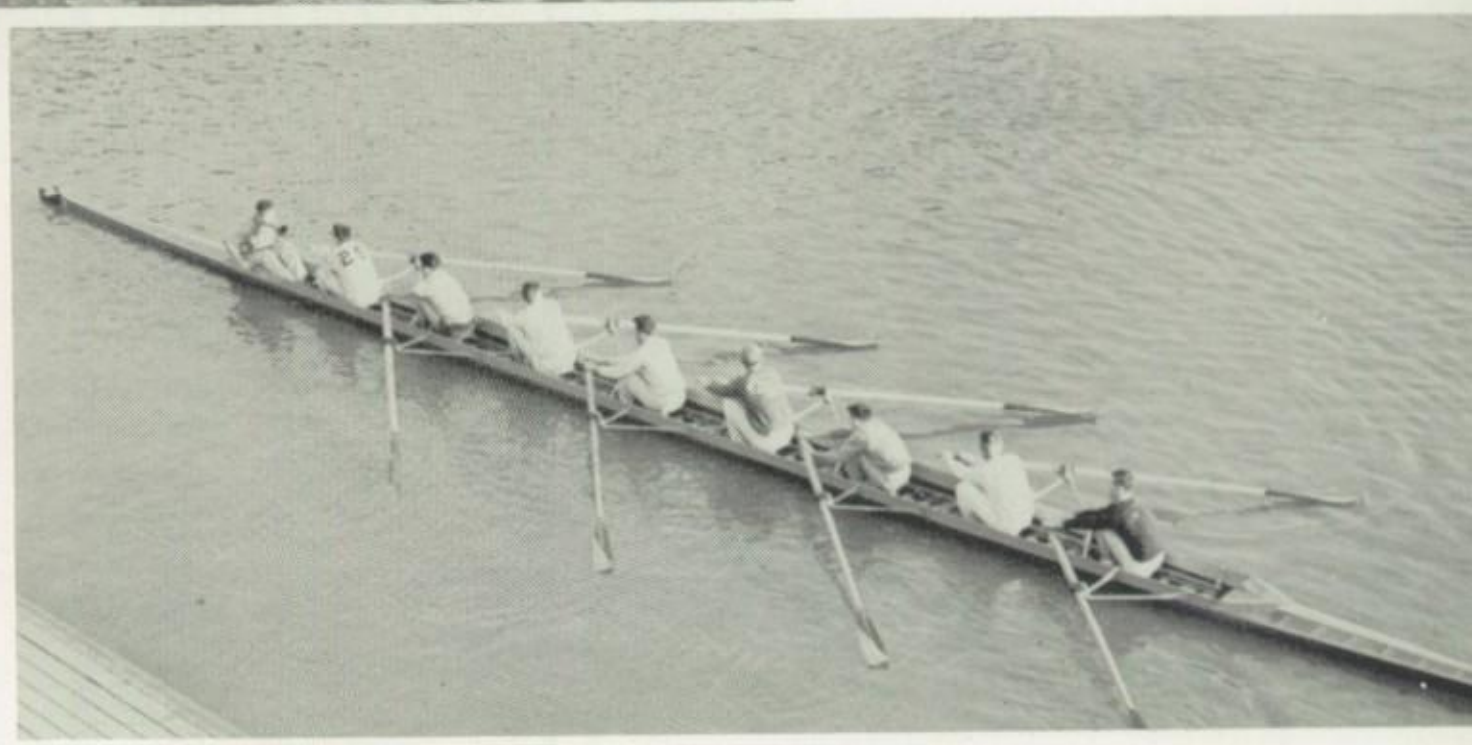
CREW

Spring hits the boathouse.



Going on a "Sight-seeing Tour."

Breaking out the Shell.

The oarsmen enter their 5th crew season with more equipment than ever before. Besides the completion of the "Shrimp Boat" a new shell is being added to the fleet. Sixty-five rowing generals are out to regain former titles. Coach Butt says "Spirit is high!" Along with raised hopes for victory, the oarsmen face a tougher schedule.

In their first season the Generals won both the Stotesbury and National Regattas and repeated their victories in 1952. In the past two years the W-L oarsmen have placed no lower than second in the Stotesbury and third and fourth respectively in the Nationals.

Row 1, left to right: Jones, MacNamara, Ayers, Hilder, Child. Row 2: Farman, Parsons, McCullough, Lethco, Quintus, Wrinkle. Row 3: Sides, Marnane, Pearlstein, Potter, Burgess, Bagley, Quill, Dodge, Manack, Luther, Bertelson. Row 4: Butt, Coach; Simon, Welborn, Church, Rattcliffe, Gothard, Reitz, Wortman, Blamphin, Clements, Bieber, Dresham, Scripture, Coolidge, Biren, Weaver, Walter, Sidle, Urban, Parks, Rayfield, Caldwell, McClead, Todd, Pitt, Fine, Shannon, Lancaster, Davies. Row 5: Jones, VanDyke, Griffith, Beecham.

Along with the help of assistant coach Morris (Tax), Coach Charlie Butt is shaping up the crew to face stiff competition.

The Generals open the season against the Navy Plebes and follow this race with races against the Princeton Frosh, Cornell Frosh, and George Washington. The season nears a climax at the Stotesbury Regatta in Philadelphia, with crews from the Middle Atlantic States. The season finishes with the National Regatta at Buffalo, New York.

With the command to "Row" all the crews are off trying their hardest to win that first race. When the final sprint is over and the race is won, the winning coxswain is thrown in, ending the season with a splash.

Now, here's the way you do it.

Row 1, left to right: Pond, Claxton, Kildoo, Annand, Tiches, Childress. Row 2: Urbanski, Jacobs, Hicks, Newmen, Ryland, Huston. Row 3: Ward, Demarest, Walker, Hockersmith, Edwards. Row 4: Abotts, Mgr.; Gossom, Mgr.; Rockwell, Coach.

The team this year set out with 15 players in search of another Northern Virginia Championship and State Championship. The 1952 Class took all of last year's regulars except Bobby Childress, our second baseman. Coach Pete Rockwell said the team lacked the experience of previous years but that a rapid rate improvement would take place.

J-V BASEBALL

Curve Ball.

In the coming season, 15 games are to be played. Of these 15, two are to be played outside of the Northern Virginia League. One with George Mason and one with Episcopal.

Of the hundred which went out for JV only eighteen will make the team. Coach Batson believes the prospects are good this season.

"With a line up like this we Are Bound to Win."

Our first football game was a wonderful climax to a summer of practicing, and each game after that was even more exciting! Finally the big day came, with the bonfire pep rally and the long awaited G.W. game. The next week we moved indoors to cheer our basketball team on, loving every thrilling minute of every game. We kept right on rooting for our baseball team and crew, ending the year with memories of fun and friends never to be forgotten.

"Hit 'Em High Hit 'Em Low."

The W-L Majorettes are the gals who do all the fancy strutting with the band. They have a period set aside to practice and often spend hours after school to make sure "we keep in step." This year they marched at the Inaugural parade, the Apple Bloosom Festival, football games, and several basketball games.

ow 1: Judy Evans, Ann Reed, Jo Schilling, Sue Morse. Row 2: Jean Shively, Mildred Van Werry, oan Hutton, Captain; Charlotte Kehart, Sue Goulett.

These good looking gals are known as the J.V. Cheerleaders. They spent hours practicing their yells and motions to keep in good "shape" for leading their team to victory. In their spare time they aided the varsity cheerleaders in writing a Constitution and giving a bake sale to finance a Christmas party.

"Good Serve."

With the completion of the new gym and the increased interest shown in girl's sports, the Girl's Athletic Association completed an active second year.

Shooting the Bull—(Eye, that is).

What form!

A seasonal program of intermural sports was set up for after school participants. Included in this program was hockey, soccor, volleyball, badminton, basketball, softball, ping-pong, and tennis.

Several Field Days were held with other schools. A Sports Day was held for incoming 9th graders to acquaint them with the GAA program. With the sponsorship of faculty games and assembly, the Junior-Senior game, and Bake sales, we ended the year at the Mother-Daughter Banquet. There, letters were awarded to the girls on c point basis.

Out of the way!

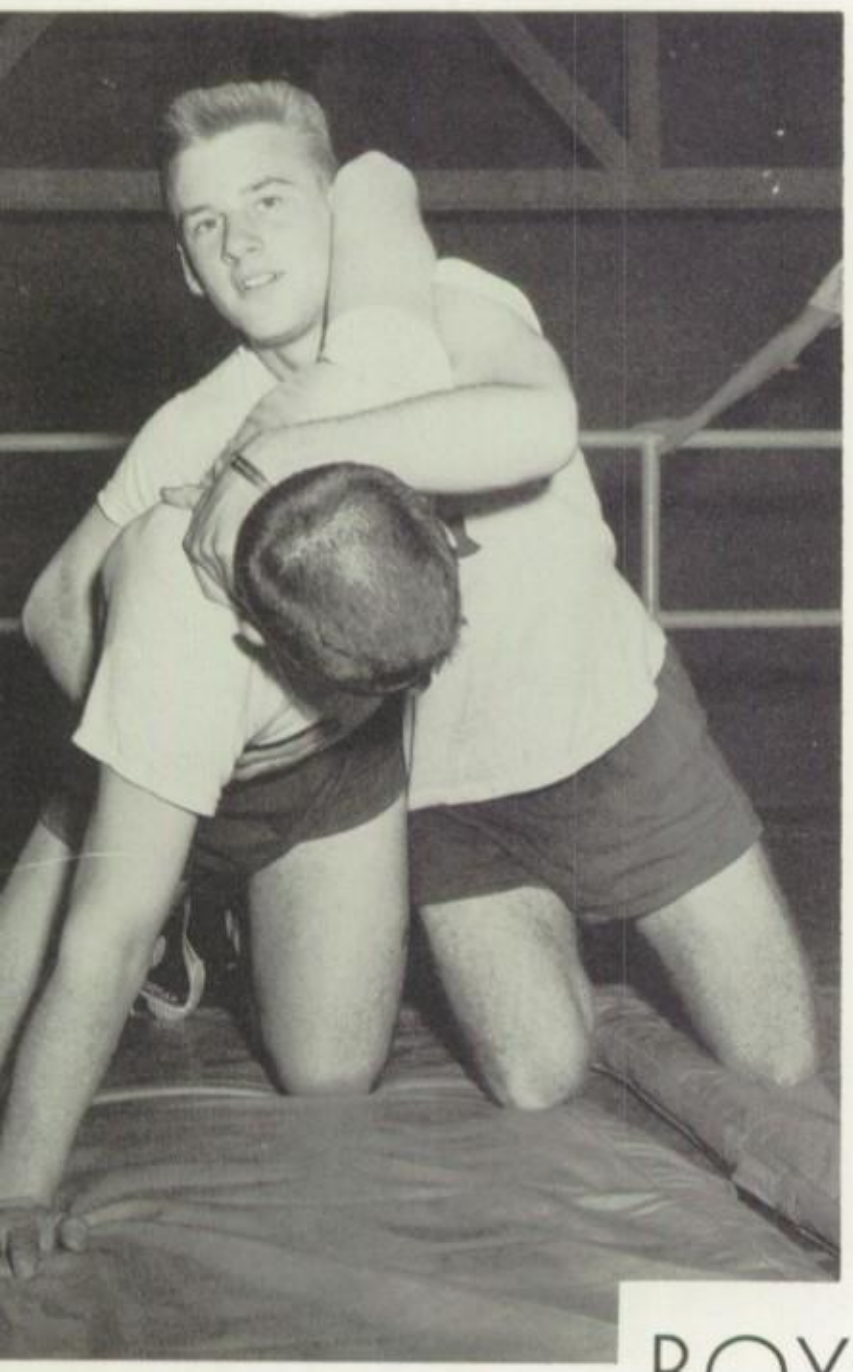
BOYS' INTRAMURAL SPORTS

Set to go.

Starting with Football three leagues were formed, Blue, Gray, and Junior-Senior. In the Junior-Senior League, Hangover Gulch won and in the two Sophomore leagues Malott's Puddle Jumpers and Harringer's Cafe Colts came out on top. Harringer's charges won the overall championship.

Two?

Second and seven.



That's not in the script.

Basketball had three divisions also—Sophomore, Junior and Senior. The final winners were Allston-Keck, Golby and Elsea-Weingartner, respectively.

Some of the minor sports were wrestling, ping-pong and shuffleboard. In wrestling the individual championships went to Bill Player in the 110-117 class, Pete Daniels in the 136-146 class and Dick Mabry in the 157-167 class.

Sports yet to come are softball and tennis.

The 1953 Blue & Gray wants to extend its deepest appreciation to Mr. Stuckey and his entire staff for their excellent work and unending patience. Thousands of individual and group pictures were taken—not an easy job by any means. Taking the picture was only the first step. Then came the developing and printing, and all this takes time and hard work. Last-minute pictures were taken and developed immediately so that we could meet our deadline. If it had not been for Stuckey Studio, our annual would never have gone to press and our year would not have been completed.

Dearest Boots —

Shell, gal this is it! Graduation is just around the corner! I really have enjoyed being your sister. I wish we could go on just like this but it can't be - Please, please be a big help in keeping Dad as neat as is it! I know you will! All the luck in the world to a wonderful gal! I know you deserve it!

Remember me always -

allez avec dieu Lots of Love,

Annie (the Alaska Kid!)

Dearest Bootsie,
Certainly felt good to know that I have your friendship still as a friend and dear sister. Thank you for all you have done for me - how sometimes I wish I could myself be more like you and yes are so much in love and wish you the best of happiness and many years together - Boots I because you are always stay as sweet and kind as you are to your dad - try to remember your dad always
